

National History Day 2022

“Debate and Diplomacy in History: Successes, Consequences, Failures”

Guidelines

Topic: Students should choose a topic which interests them and can be related to the overall theme. The topic should involve people, events, advancements, or issues from at least 25 years ago.

Project Possibilities: Students can choose one of the following categories in which to present the results of their research:

1. Paper (Individual)
2. Exhibit (Individual)
3. Exhibit (Group—2 or 3 students)
4. Performance (Individual)
5. Performance (Group—2-5 students)
6. Documentary (Individual)
7. Documentary (Group—2 or 3 students)
8. Web Site (Individual)
9. Web Site (Group—2 or 3 students)

There are specific requirements for each of these categories that we will discuss in class.

Requirements for Sources: Students will need a wide range of sources for their research. The sources should be both primary and secondary sources, and include at least one book.

An annotated bibliography is required for all projects. We will be discussing primary and secondary sources and the annotated bibliography in class.

The minimum requirements for sources are as follows:

Total sources: 6

At least 1 source must be non-Internet.

At least 1 source must be primary.

For a quality project that might be eligible for District History Day competition, students should consider these requirements:

Total sources: 12

At least 3 sources should be non-Internet.

At least 5 sources should be primary.
